Help get learning back on track after COVID-19

Become a class partner and help Cambodian children catch up on their learning after almost 18 months of COVID-19 school closures.

Choose to support an English, Math, Computer or Khmer class, and really get involved with the teacher and children in your class.

You have the power to change the education and life outcomes of these vulnerable children. Become a partner today!

www.childrensfuture.org/class-partner